

Existing Park Sites Open to the Public

Basins are labeled with the alpha-numeric designation of the drainage areas they serve.

Below is a sampling of the dual use recreation basins open to the public for seasonal use, generally between April 1 and October 1 each year.

The first trail users at the basin E/Figarden, N/Bullard, adjacent to Figarden School and Fresno's Figarden Loop Park. Grand opening day - January 16, 2010.

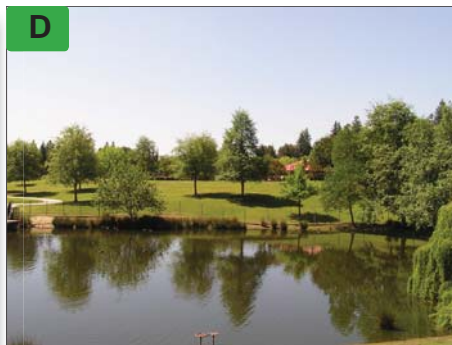

Shown left - The trail's sponsors; Wathen-Castanos-Mazmanian, City of Fresno, The Clovis Community Foundation, The Fresno Regional Foundation, and Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control District.

Carozza Park (Basin G), near Ewing Elementary, was the first dual-use basin developed within the City of Fresno following adoption of a joint maintenance and operation agreement between the District and the City in 1965.

Basin 1E - Ashlan Avenue, west of Fowler Avenue in Clovis.

Basin D/Sloan Johnson Oso de Oro Lake Park - Forkner Avenue, south of Bullard Avenue in Fresno.

Basin BB - Fresno Street, north of Shields Avenue in Fresno.

Basin FF/Sunset Park - Eden Avenue, east of West Avenue in Fresno.

Basin O/Thomas Breckenridge Park - Bullard Avenue, east of First Avenue in Fresno.

Basin Y/Trolley Creek Park - Huntington Avenue, east of Willow Avenue in Fresno.